

The Elevator Pitch

Linda is a silent, non-invasive personal assistant that operates alongside the chronic heart failure patient 24h/Day. She engages the patient in the therapeutic process by providing daily reminders and early notifications of possible medical complications. Linda passively collects and analyzes user health data helping the physician.